

The Ofakim (Horizons) Program at TAU is a unique teacher training program designed to equip teachers with the tools they need to educate Israeli schoolchildren about Judaism as a culture and civilization. Exclusively funded by the Posen Foundation, which is headed by philanthropist Felix Posen and his son Daniel, Ofakim reflects Felix Posen's vision of educating the secular Jewish majority about Jewish history, philosophy, literature and culture. The Ofakim Program is celebrating ten years of success, with some 10,000 Israeli children to date educated by Ofakim graduates. It has become one of Israel's most prestigious teacher training programs, and a valuable tool for ensuring the pluralist character of Israeli society and the future of the Jewish People.
